

No school Monday, February 15th in observance of our former Presidents, George Washington and Abe Lincoln. Enjoy the day!

Reading...Keep reading for the Book-It! Program. We have been doing super!

The 100th Day of School is Friday, February 19th! Please continue to make your 100th Day

Projects. As they are completed, send them in! The students have been sharing their projects with the class, describing the project and how they went about it. So far six children have presented their project! Great work Morgan B., Madison, Susannah, Hannah, Taylor, and Andrew!

Poems for the Poetry Recitation...I'm giving the students until next week to locate a poem at home. So far 4 students have done this. They have brought in a copy with the title and the author. I will help anyone who needs help finding a poem starting next week. I'm very excited about this!

Congratulations to Miss Julianna Sipel for presenting a play to our class today!! She and another student presented The Town Mouse and the Country Mouse with much expression. Way to go, Juli!

Have a glorious weekend and I hope that you are able to enjoy Monday together!
