

November 19, 2009

Dear Parents,

It hardly seems possible that it is almost Thanksgiving! We have spent the last week or so working on a variety of Thanksgiving learning activities, with more to come before break. We will be having a classroom feast on Tuesday from 1:00-2:30. The students will be preparing several foods, including homemade applesauce. Please join us if you can.

Please remember there is no school tomorrow November 20th due to Parent-teacher conferences. Those of you who have scheduled times with me should have received a confirmation yesterday. Please contact me if you are unsure of your scheduled time, or if you need to schedule (or reschedule) an appointment.

We will be on Thanksgiving break from Wednesday November 25th through Sunday the 29th.

Please continue to send sweatshirts and jackets each day, as we try to get outside as often as possible.

Thanks for your continued support!

Mrs. Horton
